THE biggest scramble you ever saw is after those $189 pianos now advertised at Crawford's, or, more properly speaking, those $250 pianos for $189, now advertised at Crawford's!! If they were not the solid, handsome Muldoons they are—actually are—one would imagine they had wings the way they fiee away!! Crawford's, of course, cannot afford to keep up this gait long. Too much of a good thing!! Meantime, they wired their factory late last night, "Put 160 more of those $350 planos in hands." Councilman Spiegelhalter's Friends Say He Is Dissatisfied.

It was stated Wednesday by friends of Joseph Spiegelhalter, Jr., one of the newly elected Democratic members of the City Council, that he intended to resign from the two committees to which he was appointed by President Hornsby Tuesday because Republican members were given chairmanships of four of the eight committees.

Mr. Spiegeihalter was named as a member of the Committee on Claims and the Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, but was not made chairman of any committee. It was reported that he felt that the chairmanships should have gope to the Democratic members, and that he intended to increase a resolution at the meeting Friday Sensational Development in the Portageville, Mo., Case.

New Madrid, Mo., April 17.—Word was re-ceived from Portageville to-day that John Adams is under arrest there on the charge of shooting into the houses of George Mc-Fadden and Dave Discher, who were in-strumental in uncerthing a coffin supposed to contain the body of Thomas Reid. It is the outgrowth of the alleged insurance fraud attempted to be perpetrated here.

FOR OLD AGE

To the old, as to babies, the even balance of health is more important than anything else in the world. The possible health, in age, is not high and strong; it is only even.

There is no end, but death, to the trouble that comes of its loss. It ought to be watched like a baby's.

The eagerness of the citizens of St. Louis to avail themselves of the opportunity offered by Mr. Carnegle to procure a new and improved public library system, was demonstrated by the overwhelming majority with which the measure providing for an increase of the tax rate for public library purposes was carried at the recent election. The general opinion is that the Exposition property, which rightfully belongs to the public, should be diverted from its present use, which benefits a few, to a public institution and park which will be enjoyed by all the citizens of St. Louis.

This rule of the President is said to apply to all other positions. Despite this fact, Charles Wenneker, who has been Collector of Revenue for St. Louis, wants to be Internal Revenue Collector for the United States in this district and has made no effort to conceal this desire. It is said that he is now in the East, possibly Washington.

Mr. Smith will fight to hold his position, Mr. Grenner will also object to having his place taken away from him, and Mr. Walkenhorst, it is believed, will try to hold on to the appraisership. Just where the fight will end is hard to determine.

State Senator J. M. Rollins is also in Washington. Congressman Joy, before leaving for the capital a few days ago, was quoted as saying that he intended to have a new law passed covering the Federal offies in St. Louis alone.

Chauncey I. Filley, when asked for a statement on the status of matters, said:

"I am not in on these things now. You know Charlie Wenneker says I have no influence in Washington any more, and that I can't stop anything or get anything there. Well, I guess he is right. Furthermore, I will say that I am not going to try to have any influence in Washington. I am not surprised, however, that this fight has started as soon as it has. I have predicted it. There are a few people who will have to make some explanations to the President. At least, I should think he would want to know the why and wherefore of certain things that have gone wrong in this neck of the woods recently. At the National Convention it was announced that the State Committee intended to have something to say about the appointments in Missouri. It looks as if they may. It will be a grand row."

CUPID IN A RAILROAD OFFICE.

A. S. Johnson and Miss Susan Ohlman Are Married.

A romance which had its origin in a business office culminated Wednesday in the marriage of Albert S. Johnson, chief cierk in the freight department of the Terminal Railroad Association, to Miss Susan E. Ohiman, who was employed as a stenographer in the same office.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, No. 2309 University street. The Reverend James J. McCabe of the Church of the Sacred Heart, to which parish Miss Ohlman belonged, officiated. A wedding supper was served at the house, after which the couple departed for Seymour. Ind., the bridegroom's original home, and the present abode of his parents.

Mr. Johnson is 28 years old, and has been connected with the Terminal company for several years. His acquaintance with Miss Ohlman was made in the dingy freight office of the Terminal company at Twelfth and Poplar streets. The latter, who lived with her mother on University street, entered the office as a stenographer three years ago. The business duties of the young folks brought them much in contact, and an acquaintance ripened into friendship and finally into love. They became engaged some time ago, and the wedding was set for Wednesday. The bridegroom boarded at No. 2827 Locust street.

Captain Clifford B. Allen, late of the First M. Houser of St. Louis is in that city and that he has called on President McKinley. Incidentally, according to information from Washington, Mr. Houser has discovered that new commissions will be required for Federal officeholders, and that Surveyor Smith, Collector Grenner and Appraiser Walkenhorst will not serve after their four years' term expires unless they obtain new commissions.

It has been quite generally known that a fight is on between National Committeeman Kerens and State Committeeman Akins of the Republican party as to who shall serve the Federal ple in Missouri.

Mr. Houser is quoted as saying that he is not in Washington to meddle with these appointments, but it is understood that he represents the Akins State Committee faction in opposition to the Kerens faction.

State's Display at Pan-American Exposition Soon Will Be Complete.

A carload of agricultural products of the State will be sent to Buffalo this week to be installed in the Missouri division in the Pan-American Exposition. Charles C. was snipped from Doe Run, is now being installed in the Mines and Mining building by Commissioner Graves. It is practically the same exhibit that was presented at the Omaha Exposition. The mine exhibit will occupy 600 square feet.

Sixteen hundred square feet will be devoted to the horticultural products and 1,000 square feet to the agricultural products. Apples and other fruits will be shipped to Buffalo the latter part of the month: They will be exhibited in plate-glass cases in order to protect the fruit from dirt. Speaking of the work Mr. Bell said.

"We have arranged to have a car of follage plants and palms shipped to Buffalo from Shaw's Garden. These will be used in decoration, and will be something that no other State will have.

"The members of the commission will depart for Buffalo the latter part of April. Arrangements have not been made for a day to be designated as 'Missouri Day,' but it will be set for some time in July, I think. We expect Governor Dockery to be present at that time."

PLEADED GUILTY TO LARCENY CHARGES.

May Willard, a Strange and Reticent Police Character, Gets Workhouse Sentence.

May Willard, alias Nellie Woods, one of the strangest characters with whom the St. Louis police have to deal, pleaded guilty to two charges of larceny Wednesday in the Court of Criminal Correction Judge Clark sentenced her to serve thirty days in the Workhouse in each case. A parole, which was granted for good behavior, was revoked and she was bound over the Grand Jury in the sum of $800 on a charge of grand larceny. Such is the multiplicity of troubles which face her.

May Willard's first offense was the stealing of a coat from Barr's dry goods store. Judge Murphy sent her to jail for twenty days. Shortly after she was released she stole a silk skirt, a dress pattern and a silk waist from Cora Taylor of No. 2219 Market street. She pleaded guilty and got six months in the Workhouse. Before her term was up she was visited at the Workhouse by Mrs. Catherine Haines, who was conducting "The Door of Hope," an institution for reformation, at No. 828 South Ninth street. At the expiration of her term she went to the home and was installed there as a sort of superintendent. As soon as Mrs. Haines left the house to do some errands May departed with a purse containing $2 and all the clothing she could find.

For this she received a sentence of a year over the Grand Jury in the sum of $800

taining $2 and all the clothing she could find.

For this she received a sentence of a year in the Workhouse. She became sick and was sent to the City Hospital. While there she saved the life of Miss Woodruff, a nurse, by struggling with an insane man, and prevented him from killing her after he had knocked her down. In the fight she herself was severely cut and bitten. In consideration of this heroic service Judge Clark paroled her. After getting her liberty she fell in the old rut again and committed two more robberies.

Judge Clark has revoked her parole and she must serve five months of an unexpired term in addition to the sixty days.

"THE PRIMA DONNA," WITH LULU GLASER AS STAR.

New York, April 17.—"The same old story," says one of the characters in "The Prima Donna," which, after many delays, Wednesday night. It is, indeed, "The same old story." This time it happens to be callled "The Prima Donna."

There is, however, a slight difference beween this and some of the other "same old stories." Several of these have been amusing. "The Prima Donna," however, is not. It began at 8:15; it was nearly an our later before a pretty waltz song caught the audience's fancy. There had been some knockabout vaudeville for Mr. William PORTO RICAN TARIFF Cameron and Miss Toby Claude-which had nothing to do with the piece itself—that proved entertaining. But everything else nad been on the same level of duliness. Harry B. Smith, who wrote the libretto has done better, and Alme Lachaume's and snap. Miss Lulu Glaser, as Angela, the prima donna, was charming to behold, and put as much cleverness and piquancy as she could into a role in which her opportunities were few and far between.

Doctor Peake dressed a wound on Meyer's head and he returned to the wedding celebration.

DOES NOT DISAPPOINT.

The New Discovery for Catarrh Seem to Possess Remarkable Merit. A new catarrh cure has recently appeared which, so far as tested, has been remarkably successful in curing all forms of catarrh, whether in the head, throat, bronchial tubes, or in stomach and liver. The remedy is in tablet form, pleasant and convenient to take and no special secrecy is maintained as to what it contains, the tablet being a scientific combination of Guaircol, Eucalyptol, Sanguinaria, Hydrastin and similar valuable and harmless antiseptics.
